

M. Indumathi

Indumathi has over 10 years of invaluable experience across diverse industry verticals ranging from pharmaceuticals to media and publishing. She is also an accomplished writer and poet. Her articles are regularly published in ICFAI University journals. She has edited over 300 books and has won prestigious awards for her poetry.

She is a postgraduate in Microbiology and is also a PG Diploma holder in Mass Communications from Symbiosis. She has been certified by Dale Carnegie and is also the certified facilitator for Leadership Management International, USA, wherein she conducts leadership programs for senior management executives.

Since 2002, she has been offering training and consulting services nationally to corporate, professional associations, government agencies, universities and private clients. She has trained corporate organizations like Core Healthcare, IQ solutions, Foresight Technologies, SPIPA, Cognizant, LANCO, Idea Cellular, Wipro and Satyam among others. She is also an active member of Confederation of Women Entrepreneurs, Hyderabad and conducts training programs for their members.

Indumathi's wide range of experience includes managing large corporate training projects (incorporating TNA, Delivery and post training follow-ups). She also specializes in training middle level and senior level executives across the spectrum of industries. Apart from deploying the regular soft skills program like Business communication, Cross cultural sensitization, her focus areas also include leadership, team development, change management and customer service.

Indumathi's practical approach ensures qualitative training deployment and she conducts her programs through total facilitation and Socratic approach. This methodology raises the levels of performance and ensures great improvements in individual performance which leads to organizational excellence.

*****